Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

I have a Bachelor's degree in Urban & Regional Planning from Texas state University. I also have over 17 years of experience in finance, investment analysis, and real estate. I have worked with demographic census data, property evaluation, and mapping. I am able to disseminate geographical data and apply data to evaluate real world situations. I have good attention to detail, take pride in my work, and am practical in my decision making.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I have the ability to be impartial in my decision making while carrying out responsibilities. A recent example of this has been my experience coaching youth basketball for my four year old son's team at Dittmar Recreation Center. I took a pledge to be a good example and role model for all the kids on my team. While I am my son's biggest fan, my role as coach was to allow every one of the eleven children on my team to enjoy the game of basketball, have equal levels of coaching, and opportunity to play. I was able to focus on my responsibilities to all of the team rather than promote and focus solely on my son. I knew that showing favor or being biased in my position as coach would hinder the development and the success of the team overall. The same holds true as a stake holder in our community. Austin is a great city made up of many great people and I want to do my part to make sure all are given the representation that will lead to the future success of our community being built on the foundation that includes every citizen.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

Since 1979 Austin has been my home. I have raised my kids here, built my homes here, and spent my life working here. I am even an Austin reality TV celebrity, sort of, having been part of Austin Resource Recovery's Dare To Go Zero tv program. In a country where I have the freedom to live anywhere I am yet to find a good reason to say good bye to Austin. Over the years I have lived in many parts of town. Central in Hyde Park and off of Duval. As far South as Manchaca, out West to the banks of Lake Austin, and East to the edge of our city limits near McKinney Falls. I have worked for iconic Austin companies such as Rooster Andrews Sporting Goods and Golfsmith International. I have been part of the culture and social events that uniquely Austin. Aquafest to SXSW, The Broken Spoke to ACL Moody Theater, and from speed boats on Town Lake to Formula One in Elroy, TX. I have been part of what has made Austin more than just a city but a vibrant and fun place to live. Living here has defined who I am in so many ways and I cherish our non pretentious, environmental sensitive, fun loving, high tech, hippie cowboy, y'all are welcome way of doing things right. Giving the opportunity to serve on the redistricting commission I will do my best to do my duty and add to the legacy of our city. I will carry out my duties in a thoughtful and impartial manner to make sure every stake holder is represented fairly and has the opportunity to contribute to the ongoing success of the community as a whole.
